START MEMO NOMINATING-JUSTIFICATION:
Mr. Najieeb is English teacher and vice principal of one of the biggest high schools in Sanaa the capital of Yemen. Due to his position as a teacher of the English language, he is in a unique position to disseminate information learned on the IVP upon his return. His position also makes him well aware of many of the obstacles and problems involved in teaching English as a second language. Mr. Najieeb is also a member of the English curriculum committee where he is in a position of influence involving setting curriculum standards at the ministry of education. This visit will increase his knowledge and, upon his return, he will be in a position to share the experience with his colleagues and implement changes in the English language program in the public schools.

START MEMO NOMINATING-JUSTIFICATION:
Mr. Rashad was selected among many candidates because of his active participation in the academic field in Yemen. He is from a remote area and teaches at a new and growing college (Community college Sanaa). His position as a young assistant teacher and head of English department at the community college and his responsibilities regarding curriculum and methodology at the Community College puts him in a position to influence change among the university students as well as curriculum trends. His ambitious personality makes him very eager to learn about the education system, political, cultural, and social life in U.S.
